YATIN OZA

Shri Yatin Narendra Oza is a stalwart in the field of law and a man who wears his heart on his sleeve. He is a designated senior counsel and a dynamic activist on the political front who staunchly believes that his forte lies in not reacting to criticism. He is highly regarded as a firebrand advocate as well as a messiah to freshers at the BAR, who romped home with flying colours in the recently concluded High Court Bar Association elections.

Shri Oza has bagged the coveted National Award-2007 at the hands of H.E. The President Of India Smt. Pratibha Patil in recognition of his devotion and contribution to the field of law, a feat which makes all of us look up to him with awe.

Born on the 30th day of March, 1959, Shri Oza personifies an adventurous, spontaneous, confident and enthusiastic Arian. He is an amazing blend of sharp wit and breathtaking poise while he mesmerizes the Bench and the Bar with his incisive arguments. A man who idolizes Shri GP Desai and Shri HM Sirwai has today reached the pinnacle of his profession.

Shri Oza prefers to introspect to cope with professional lows, but, is guilty of many an emotional outburst at the time of emotional lows. He believes that the legal profession is a jealous mistress, however, he considers himself fortunate to have a very affectionate and understanding wife who has stood by him through thick and thin with a smiling face.

Shri Oza harnesses fond memories of his stint at HL from 1975 to 1979. Be it the pre-commerce elections which he won convincingly or be it the saga where he was caught listening to cricket commentary during class, his memories with HL have a blend of the sweet and the sour. He is also one of the most active HL'ites who boasts of having had as many as 3 batch meets in the last year and vividly remembers his friends and teachers at HL.
